

COSHH REGULATIONS

COURSE CONTENT

AIM

To advise delegates of their legal duties and responsibilities as Supervisors, Managers or Employers under the requirements of the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH) Regulations (2002).

Pre-Requisite

No previous knowledge is required.

Course Duration

½ day.

Maximum Number

15 persons.

Training Aids

Lecture notes and audio visual presentation.

Assessment

No formal assessment.

Certification

On successful completion of the course candidates will receive a NETA certificate.

Please Note: NETA certificates have an advised expiry of 3 years from date of issue.

Additional Information

Meeting the needs and expectations of service users is of the highest priority to our staff. Therefore if you have any concerns or wish to make a comment about the service please contact: info@NETA.co.uk

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this training course delegates will be able to:

- Understand the aims and objectives of the COSHH Regulations.
- Appreciate the need to control exposure to hazardous substances which is under the employer's control.
- Undertake an assessment of all work which is liable to expose any employee to hazardous solids, liquids, dusts, fumes, vapors, gases or micro-organisms.
- Appreciate the need for Supervisors, Managers or Employers to provide information, instructions and training to employees about the risks and precautions to be taken.
- Understand the legal requirements regarding the completion and implementation of satisfactory control procedures, provided in compliance with the COSHH Regulations.

COURSE SYLLABUS

Introduction

- Aims and objectives of the COSHH Regulations
- The application of the regulations to specify trades and industries

Relating COSHH to the Health and Safety at Work Act

- Health and safety implications on COSHH
- Reasoning behind the introduction of such regulations
- The present legislation and how it effects Supervisors, Managers, Employers and Employees

Assessing the Risk to Employees

- Responsibility and procedures for undertaking an assessment
- How information is collected, retained and updated
- Communicating information to employees
- Assessment records
- How to follow through actions from assessments

Implementation of Control Measures and Procedures

- What action should be taken after assessment
- Controlling exposure to hazardous substances
- Monitoring and health surveillance
- Reporting procedures
- How to record and maintain data
- Use of personal health data in interpreting risks
- Personal Protection Equipment (PPE)
- Respiratory Protective Equipment
- Ventilation
 - Legal Requirements
 - Dilution
 - Local Exhaust Ventilation
- Discharge to the atmosphere
- Examination and testing of LEV systems

- Practical experience of monitoring airborne pollutants by using KOMYO KITTAGAWA gas detection equipment.
- Delegates will also be given practical training in completing Substance Identification Records and extracting information from Hazard Data Sheets.

Course Ref: CPH12
CSM: 09/20