

Level 3 VRQ in Engineering Technologies - Fabrication

Introduction: Choosing to study engineering is a great way to open up loads of future career opportunities. Whether you want to work in industry, specialise in a particular area or eventually go on to run your own consultancy firm, our courses will give you an understanding of the specialist work related skills that are in demand by many employers.

Key Facts:

Course Duration	One Year
Attendance Time	Full-Time
Pre-qualification Requirements	GCSE in English, maths and science at grades 4+ or equivalent Level 2. You will study functional skills in English and Maths, if you haven't already achieved these grades.
PPE supplied	Yes, it's all supplied

What will I learn?

Health & Safety, CCNSG Safety Passport, Use of Fabrication Power Tools/Hand Tools, Apply for Jobs, CV Writing and Interview Techniques, Cutting and Shaping techniques.

Practical Training in different Thermal and non-thermal, Tack Welding using multiple processes, Gas Cutting using manual and machine, Plating, Pattern development including: radial line and parallel line.

How will I be assessed?

Carrying out practical assessments and multi-choice tests in a realistic industrial working environment.

Why choose NETA?

- You'll learn in a real working environment
- You'll receive excellent teaching and learning
- We have strong links with business and employers
- All of our Tutors are industry experienced
- Excellent progression opportunities

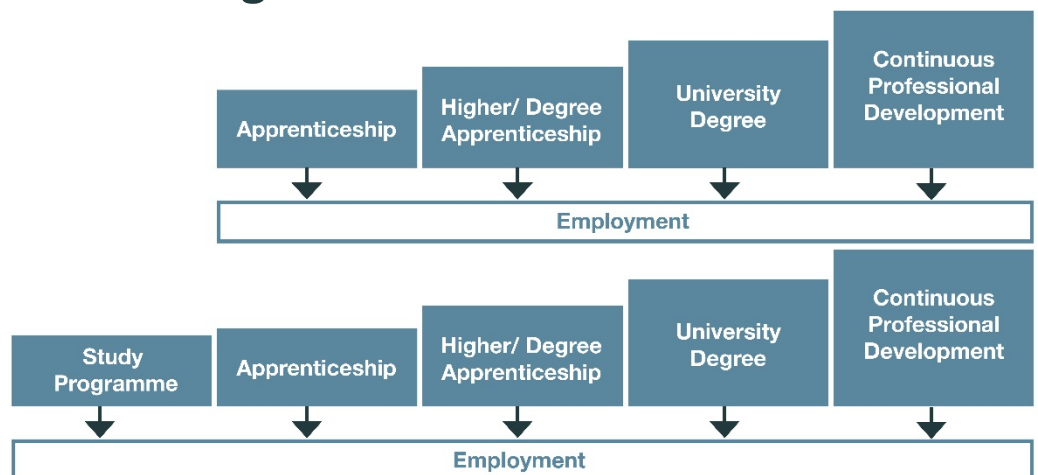

How do I apply?

Visit our website on: <http://www.neta.co.uk/courses/16-19-year-olds>

Call us on: 01642 616 936

Or email us on: info@neta.co.uk

Career Opportunities & Progression:

What's next?

Progression on to a higher level engineering qualification which could then lead onto an engineering apprenticeship.